IMPORTANT WORK OF YEAR

Interesting Reports Submitted by Officers at Annual Meeting.

To the city's rich array of historical residences will be added in the near future the John Marshall house, restored as far as possible to represent in interior arrangement its condition

In interior arrangement its condition at the time it was occupied by the d'actinguished Chief Justice. Preliminary plans to this end were presented yesterday by Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson in her presidential report before the annual meeting of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities.

"The acquisition of this building, which was given to the association by the city of Richmond," said Mrs. Ellyson, "was the most important incident of the year, and gave a tremendous impetus to the work of the association, not alone locally, but in the State and throughout the country. It will be the pleasure of the association to preserve this building as nearly as possible as it was when occupied by its former great owner."

Annual election of officers and the reading of reports from the various branches of the association was the order of husiness at yesterday's meeting. It was held in the society rooms of the Virginia Historical Society at 4 o'clock. The president of the association, Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, presided.

The balloting resulted in the re-election of all the major officers except one. Mrs. J. St. George Bryan was chosen recording secretary, to take the place of Mrs. Allce M. Tyler, resigned. The board of directors was re-elected without change, with the addition to it of Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, of Nortolk. The executive officers, as they stand now, are: President, Mrs. J. United States Court Issues Second Warrant for Man's Arrest.

Afrest.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., January 4.—The United States and Corporation Courts clasmed this affernoon, when a second warrant was issued for the arress of
W. H. Thorpe on a charge of nonsupport. Thorpe last night was released from custody by order of Judge L. C. Barley, of the Corporation Court, on habeas corpus proceedings. He had a few hours prior to his release been by the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and court of the District bond.

Thoppe, shortly after his arrest, communicated with his attorneys, Fulton & Washington, and Moncure & Gioth, of Alexandria county. These attorneys hurriedly prepared the habeas corpus proceedings, and Judge Barley, after hearing them, declared that Thorpe was lilegally held, and at once discharged the prisoner.

As soon as Thorpe is taken in custody by the deputy marshal he will again be arraigned and released on bond panding extradition by the District of Columbia courts.

Some time ago Thorpe obtained a divorce from Margaret J. Thorpe, now of Washington, D. C. The decree was granted in the Circuit Court for Alexandria county before Judge J. B. T. Thornton.

Aftarward Mrs. Thorpe brought suit andria county before Judge J. B. T. Thornton.

Afterward Mrs. Thorpe brought suit in the courts of the District of Columbia for maintenance, and when he falled to appear to defend the action she obtained an order for alimony while her suit was pending. Thorpe it is said, declined to pay the alimony, hence she had him indicted for non-support, resulting in his arrest.

Thorpe being a non-resident of Washington, living in Alexandria county, it was impossible to serve a process on him, and the action had to be taken through the United States Court here.

The case is an interesting one from a logal point of view, and doubtless the diestion of the rights between the courts involved will eventually become a feature of the case, as will slee the legality of divorce under the Virginia laws by means of official order of publication, where the defendant is a non-resident.

Hundreds of people came later, and stood on chairs in the corridor and crowded the anteroom, which gives access to the stage. #### TOOTED IN WRONG PLACE

Cuiddy Ball Charged With Blowing Heru in Church Window.

Cuiddy Ball colored was acressed sesterday on a warrant charging him with disturbing public worship at the Mercy Seat Baptist Church, on West Moore Street.

Ball is said to have been a little exhiberant over the glad event of the new year, and to have poked a horn in a window of the house of worship and tooted. The congregation was startled, to say the least. The blowing of a horn at such a time is calculated to have brought serious thoughts to even the most stout-hearied. It was soon seen, however, that it was not that horn which shall make the ground to suspire and the sea to give up its dead, but simply a little thing invented to amuse children and their foolish elders. But the worship had been disturbed, and Ball was arrested.
